VANCOUVER OUTDOOR EXPERIENCE PROGRAM

2013 SUMMER INSTITUTE

These summer courses prepare teachers to incorporate outdoor experiential education into their practice.

Teaching Adventure Activities for the Outdoors

EDCP 323 | 3 credits

Teaching Adventure Activities for the Outdoors, is defined as an introduction to the principles of outdoor experiential education (OEE), and provides students with some exposure to adventure activities such as introductory sea kayaking, high ropes and team-based initiatives.

The focus of the courses is to provide a theoretical underpinning of OEE for pre-service teachers and opportunities for teacher education candidates to consider the use of outdoor/adventure activities in their teaching practice.

Two sections are offered:

- Section 951 | July 2-12 | 8:30 a.m.-12:00 p.m.
(Overnight Granite Falls field trip July 5-6)
- Section 953 | July 22-August 2 | 8:30 a.m.-12:00pm
(Overnight Granite Falls field trip July 27-28)

Note: EDCP 323 is a prerequisite for EDCP 423; students wishing to take both courses should enroll in EDCP 323 section 951.

Advanced Methodology for Outdoor Education

EDCP 423 | 3 credits

Advanced methodology for Outdoor Education is a follow-up course to EDCP 323 that explores in more depth the planning and implementation of OEE in K-12 school-based programs. This course has a particular focus on how to integrate OEE with academic curriculum.

- Section 951 | July 22-August 2 | 1:30 p.m.-5:00 p.m.
(Overnight Whistler field trip July 27-28)

UBC's Faculty of Education is also offering a Summer Course in Best Practices & Innovations in Physical Education. Visit pdce.educ.ubc.ca/PhysEd2013 for details.

These 3-credit courses are available for undergraduate credit.
