PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT & COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT
with UBC Faculty of Education

GROUNDHOG DAY - mixed results.

According to the Twitterverse the vote was split as to whether or not we are in for 6 more weeks of winter. Wiarton Willie (in Ontario) did not see his shadow signalling we are in for an early spring. This comes as a surprise to many of us here in BC upon the arrival of more snow!

Whatever your plans for the remainder of the winter season, we invite you to look ahead to the warm months of summer and to envision your plans for professional learning! To assist, we are pleased to announce the line up of 2017 summer programs covering topics such:

- BC’s New Curriculum
- UDL
- Assessment
- Literacy
- Inquiry
- Physical & Health Education
- Language Acquisition
- International & Immigrant Students
- Technology in the Classroom
- and more.
To assist with planning we've highlighted institute titles, dates and location in this issue and are currently working hard to finalize the web pages where you'll find more information. We anticipate all pages being live by February 15 - keep an eye on pdce.educ.ubc.ca/Summer2017.

In this issue:

- Graduate Programs
- Summer Institutes
- Conferences
- Professional Learning
- Summer at UBC-O
- Online Learning
