Professional Development & Community Engagement

April showers have (finally!) brought May flowers

This month is the deadline to apply for the Master of Educational Technology (MET) and start in September – don't miss your chance to take part in this innovative and exciting online program!

Our ECE Assistant & Basic Certificate programs also have deadlines coming up this month – register by May 31 to start to these online programs (with an in-person practicum component), and help fill the need for certified Early Childhood Educators in BC!

We also have several Summer Institutes that still have spots left. Take a look at the full list of offerings below. And hurry – seats are filling fast!
